Two friendly telephone
habits . . . quick to answer
when your telephone rings; SLOW to hang up
when you call someone
who does not immediately respond. When calling others, remember that the
called person may be almost there . . . so wait a

4 GOOD REASONS FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS BY LONG DISTANCE

You can talk over matters at once promptness often prevents loss of a customer.

You can build closer relations with customers.

You can use tact in delicate situations.

And because men talk more freely than they write, you can frequently trace the real reason for the complaint and prevent similar complaints in the future.

Use outdoor public telephones often. They're brightly lighted and located for your convenience in residential and business districts and along highway entrances to the city.

SCRATCHED WOODWORK

One way to repair deeply scratched woodwork is by filling the scratches with a mixture of fine sawdust and spar varnish. After this filling has hardened completely, smooth it down with fine sandpaper.
