The High River section of AGT's Directory Number One is reproduced from the AGT historical collection.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada began service on September 5, 1906 in a drugstore in the Lane Block.

From 1907 to January 1910 the exchange was listed as being on Third Street West, now Third Avenue.

In March 1910 AGT returned the telephone office to the Lane Block. It was upstairs overlooking Third Avenue and the entrance was around the corner on Railway Street.

AGT operated there until August 1928 when the brick cottage exchange was built.
