DO NOT PULL OUT

If you are stung by an insect that leaves a noticeable stinger, do not attempt to pluck it out as this will only force the remaining venom into the system.

FRONT COVER STORY

CEDAR WAXWING: Cedar Waxwings are summer residents in every area of Alberta, but are most numerous in the south. They are named for the scarlet wax-like shaft extensions of wing covert feathers. The young birds are fed largely on berries. Nesting occurs most commonly in July when the wild small fruits are in season. A neat compact nest of twigs is usually built within 5 to 10 feet of the ground.
