FRONT COVER STORY

From remote frontier fort to bustling major metropolis — colorful Calgary will be only 100 years young in 1975. To mark the occasion Century Calgary has prepared a year-long program of events featuring the commercial, cultural and recreational endeavors of this dynamic city.

BACK COVER STORY

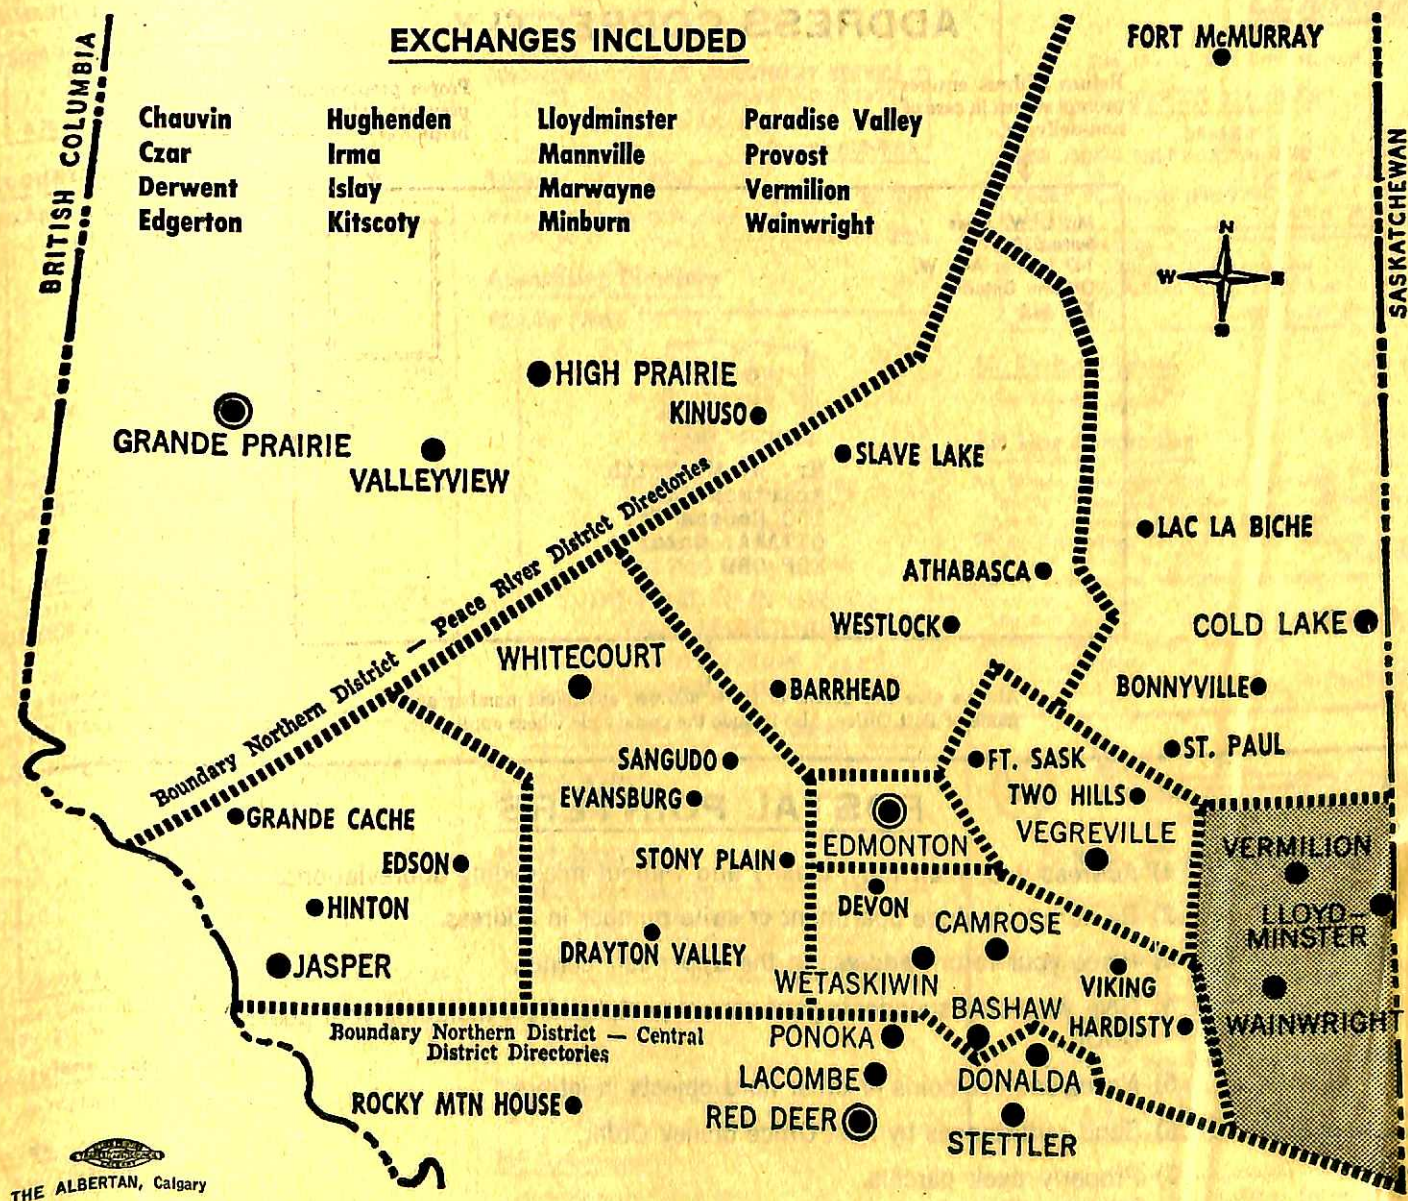

Lethbridge/Southern Alberta will be the site of the Jeux Canada Games to be held February 11 - 23, 1975. It will be the first time a regional concept has been used, and allows the Canada Games Society to schedule the various sports at fifteen different locations.

Approximately 2,750 athletes from Canada's ten provinces and two territories will participate. A warm western welcome is extended to everyone to visit Lethbridge/Southern Alberta during Jeux Canada Games to enjoy the keen competition and special Alberta hospitality provided.

DECEMBER, 1974
