Clear as a Bell!

Until you have talked over a really long telephone line you have not appreciated the excellence of the modern Long Distance Telephone.

The personality of your voice is preserved, sound, voice and intonation, exactly as you speak.

Distance is no bar. You may talk to the next village or across the continent, the results invariably satisfy.

Your telephone is one in a legion of nation-wide telephones arrayed for universal service, why not treat it as such and use the long line.
